ABBAGNALE BROTHERS: THE LEGENDS OF ROWING

The life and successes of Giuseppe and Carmine Abbagnale, multiple world and Olympic rowing champions and Italian heroes between the 80s and 90s. The brothers tell for the first time in a documentary, the story of their incredible international successes, through the unpublished repertoire, from the testimonies of fans, journalists, and historical opponents. A compelling story of victories achieved with passion, ethics, and sacrifice. An exciting journey into a legendary past of Italian sport at the end of the short century.
