ONE FOR ALL

Teo, a teenage from a wealthy family hits another boy during a fight. The boy now struggles between life and death, and Teo ends up in prison. In this way, a circle that had broken many years ago, now suddenly reopens. This episode brings back together, after thirty years, three man called to settle accounts with their past, nailed to their responsibilities by the father of the young suspect, who presents the bill to his (former) friends.
